JR Event Camp

 - these events will be held at Spring Creek Farm.*

The warmth of spring approaches, and we're thrilled to unveil a season packed with activities, clinics, and camps at RABT. Season passes for schooling at the farm are on sale, so grab yours now!

As we gear up for the new season, we have some updates to share regarding our horse trials. After careful consideration and planning, we have chosen not to host competitions this year. We understand the importance of this event to many of you, and we share in your disappointment.

While we won't be hosting the horse trials, we remain dedicated to offering quality education and training opportunities for our community. Our clinics, camps, and facilities will continue to provide valuable experiences for riders of all levels.

Happy Riding!

Lucy
